A Crime Thriller Fiction Book Series

Six Ways From Sunday is the new fictional crime-thriller book series from M. K. Riley. Boot Williams, as he is known around St. Louis, is an ex-police officer turned bail bondsman. He has spent the last few years of his life running his small time business, 'Williams Bonds'. Mainly lending bail money to drink drivers and construction workers who blew their wages down the casino. When a well-dressed lawyer pulls up in an expensive car and walks in to his office however, he knew something was out of the ordinary. But little did he realise just how much his fortunes were about to change. Boot has to choose out of delving head first into a dangerous criminal underworld of drug smuggling to track down six fugitives or losing everything he has worked his whole life to build.
