Clara: The Story of the Pug Who Ruled my Life Margo Kaufman

Acclaimed columnist Margo Kaufman fell in love with pugs when she was nineteen. But none of her previous pets could compare with Clara, a glossy black, twelve-pound package of pug charm and pugnacity with the face of an imp, the heart of a ham, the seductive skills of a slut, and the deductive gifts of a genius. It didn't take long for Clara to let her new pug parents know who was ruling their California household -- whether she's sipping Evian from a cut-crystal bowl at Saks, or performing a star turn on Prime Time Live. Filled with the author's trademark wit and dry observations, Clara is the hilarious and heartwarming story of an unforgettable pug.
