Help give your dog the key to the kingdom of scent

Your dog truly rules when it comes to scenting ability, but you hold the key to allow him to learn how to more fully explore his kingdom. And that key is your willingness to work with him in what dog trainers call nosework exercises and games. While your dog has a wonderful innate ability to scent, nosework will present fun and interesting challenges which will make your dog more physically and mentally fit as well as to help solidify your relationship with your dog. Anne Lill Kvam's The Canine Kingdom of Scent provides you all you need to know in terms of training techniques and tips so that you and your dog can both get all the benefits from doing nosework.

You will learn:

How to motivate your dog to follow a scent trail or find a hidden item through the use of positive reinforcement and effective rewards.

The importance of teaching your dog is step-by-step increments and allowing sufficient times for breaks and relaxation.

The best way to teach your dog the names of his toys, find lost keys, and how to retrieve items left on a track.

All about the pancake tracking method used to begin to teach your dog how to track and then how to keep your dog challenged as he begins to tackle more difficult tracking exercises.
