The City of Heavenly Fire is an easy place to become lost in, which is why our sidekick to the novel is your must-have accompaniment. This is the sixth and last book in Cassandra Clare's #1 New York Times bestselling series, "The Mortal Instruments." Our sidekick details what we like about the novel, including the author's innate ability to connect with her typical audience. We also include some recommended reading from the same author, including The Bane Chronicles, which features Magnus Bane, a character that appears frequently in the author's Shadowhunter works. After all, he is immortal.

In the City of Heavenly Fire, the Shadowhunter world faces darkness, as Clary's brother, Sebastian Morgenstern, uses the Infernal Cup to grow his Endarkened army. The only way to defeat him is to band together and travel into his realm; one full of demons and nightmare-esque creatures. Our chapter-by-chapter overviews and analyses break down the key points from each section, telling you what they mean as well. We also present some riveting questions and responses concerning the novel that would be ideal for your next book club meeting. The City of Heavenly Fire is a compelling conclusion to an epic series, and our sidekick is the virtual icing on the cake, providing an extra burst of pleasure.
