William J. Bausch

Did you know that the Twelve Days of Christmas is a religious code in song. Or that a sandpiper comes to bring us joy. Have you read the story of St. Francis and the wolf. Or The Angel Song, the story of a young man's escape to freedom on Christmas Eve. These newest tales (350) from Fr. Bausch are not just a plateful of literary twinkies but an immense and varied menu with rich meals, wholesome lunches, and snacks, and even Playful Fare, They range in length from several pages to several on one page. All of these stories aim to nudge, provoke, and stimulate the reader and listener, to resonate with the human condition, as did the stories of Jesus. They originate from different cultural settings and literary genre. Your heart will be moved by tales such as The Tin Box, a gentle parable about memories; St Alexander, the story of the charcoal burner who was made a bishop; Ragman, a moving allegory of redemption; and The Doctor, a true story of compassion and respect.
