Rainbows and roses . . . love and danger . . . betrayal and desire. And the lush splendor of California's Napa Valley. It was here, during an enchanted summer when the air was fragrant with newborn grapes and moonlit roses, that Cassandra Winter, a fierce and fragile waif, fell in love with Chase Tessier, the gray-eyed maestro who creates the liquid poetry that is Tessier wine. He had never been in love—before her. And she had never been loved at all—until him. But it was she who left their love. Today, the uncertain waif is a celebrated actress. She lies in intensive care, the victim of a merciless assault, ravaged, broken, and needing him. And he is there, to help her if can, and to love her, if she will permit it. Yet there is such danger on this journey home, this brave journey back to love. Perilous secrets of the past threaten . . . and the vicious assailant who left Cassandra for dead lusts, still, for her death. Katherine Stone is the New York Times bestselling author of twenty-one novels, including ROOMMATES, TWINS, IMAGINE LOVE, PROMISES, and LOVE SONGS. Her books have been translated into twenty languages and are sold worldwide. A physician who now writes full-time, she lives in the Pacific Northwest with her husband, physician and novelist Jack Chase (Mortality Rate, Fatal Analysis, The Magruder Transplant.)
