Araline's safe, secure world within her parent's castle is about to come to an end. She is tasked by her father to carry a precious stone to the Temple of Birth to be recharged to keep an immortal invader trapped beyond their world. Araline agrees to the journey and brings Prince Leonard as a protector and guide.

When Araline reaches the temple, she learns that this is just the beginning of her journey. Four more temples await, each testing her. She must give everything she's got in order to pass the trials which await. They continue to travel and complete the journey as each temple teaches her about herself and their world. She is determined to stop the invasion, but it may cost her everything she holds dear—even her life. Can she give up everything to save her world?
