President Barack Obama said, "Everyone can make a difference."

What if in just 60 minutes you could discover the key ingredients needed to do just that?

Based on the familiar saying, "When life gives you lemons, make lemonade," The Lemonade Stand identifies the eight key ingredients needed for making L-E-M-O-N-A-D-E: Life's lemons, Empathy, Mission, Opportunity, Network, Action, Determination and Encouragement. Plus, it includes the amazing stories of real people who are already making that difference.

A guide for students, volunteers, and other good-hearted people, The Lemonade Stand is a short course in "how to make a difference." It includes a step-by-step process, which takes people from finding a cause they are passionate about, adds meaning and purpose, identifies opportunities, and helps to develop a network and a plan of action, followed by a dose of determination and encouragement. Practical principles, sound advice, and inspirational stories empower readers of all ages and backgrounds to positively change other's lives for the better.

Order today and make the difference they always wanted!

Note: On June 11, 2011, the principles in this book were used to set a Guinness World Record for the longest lemonade stand (under the category of longest temporary bar)
