Whatever happened to a simple approach to life? Whatever happened to our appreciation for the land, the air, water, animals? When did man take such a brutal turn where money, possessions, power, and control all became the priorities in society? Do you ever long for the time when life was simpler and developing inner spirit and cherishing family were tops on your daily to-do list? Well, you can get back there through the teachings of one who has had them passed down for generations. Now, you will know the secrets. In Sacred Voices, you'll discover a more peaceful, meaningful way of life and develop a powerful sense of self-worth by being taken into a world you never knew existed but at one time, brought people together to develop a spiritual sense of self and community that everyone could benefit from. Each session features a story, a ceremony, and a vision to help you become more deeply in touch with the "dance of life." You'll journey into the world of spirit, where you are both physical and spiritual, a person who stands on the earth and hears the song of the wind. Let Wolf Moondance show you how to live the best life possible! Join her on this spiritual journey to wholeness. May the spirit fill you as you follow the good red road. In this unique program you will:

- Learn how to make a medicine bundle and prayer ties
- Learn the power of sacred ancient ceremonies and Native American music
- Create sacred space where you can reflect and meditate on what you truly wish to achieve in life
- Learn how to combine your beliefs with those of the Native Americans for a healthier existence
