Garden Glory: An Oral History of the New York Knicks Dennis D Agostino

For more than a half century, the New York Knickerbockers have been one of the most recognizable and popular teams in professional sports and this collection provides the most memorable reminiscences, recollections, and anecdotes throughout the entire history of the NBA's longest-tenured marquee team. Culled from the memories of dozens upon dozens of players, coaches, team executives, owners, reporters, and fans, this work features the participation of such Knicks icons as Senator Bill Bradley, Phil Jackson, Marv Albert, Patrick Ewing, Walt Frazier, Earl Monroe, Anthony Mason, Charles Oakley, and John Starks. This is an essential book not only for Knicks fans everywhere, but for any basketball fan eager to hear the inside stories never previously published before.
