After becoming what he so clearly and strongly resisted? a consumer? Josh Swensen finds himself in a paranoid state of no return. Before long, Larry is back on the scene with much more on his mind than anti-consumerism? this time, he wants to affect change in government. And Larry isn't taking a conventional path or starting small in local government. He just doesn't do things halfway. But can he really become an eighteen-year-old president of the United States?
