The Virtues Project: An Educator's Guide (K-12) Simple Ways to Create a Culture of Character Linda Kavelin Popov

The Virtues Project was honored by the United Nations during the International Year of the Family as a model global program for all cultures, and was featured on the Oprah Show as a method for teaching children to “do the right thing.” This long awaited guide for counselors, teachers, caregivers, and youth leaders offers a wealth of character awakening activities and ideas for bringing out the best in your students and yourself.

The Virtues Project contains proven strategies for awakening virtues — the gifts within. It represents a wholistic approach to character education that can easily be integrated into existing curricula in individual classrooms, counseling groups, school, day-care center, or youth program. Major components include:

- The simple elements of character honored by all cultures and spiritual traditions — 52 basic virtues!
- “The language of virtues” for drawing out the best in children.
- Proven methods for creating a culture of character and reducing violence.
- Powerful strategies to inspire Excellence, Respect, Kindness, Commitment and Cooperation in all students.
- Success stories and activities from schools, Boys and Girls Clubs and childcare programs around the globe.
- Activities for children of all ages.
- Virtues in games and art.

You will learn:

- How to be a conscience maker instead of a conscience breaker.
- Restorative justice techniques.
- Tips for transforming bully behavior.
- 10 guidelines for establishing effective school rules.
- A simple, wholistic approach to counseling that empowers students to make moral choices.
- Creative consequences that reinforce Courtesy, Respect and Caring.
- How to create a vision statement that works.
- “ACT with Tact” methods for evaluations.
- Innovative tips for peer mentorship.
- An inclusive approach to the moral and spiritual dimension of education.
- How to teach kids to lift each other up instead of put each other down.
- Easy ways to introduce the “Virtue of the Week” program.
- 1-minute counseling strategies.
- Ways to make your school a peace zone. Grades K-12
