This book was edited with minor changes on 2/2014.

A Prophetic Neighbor chronicles the life of Jason Claymore, a psychologically unstable, retired journalism professor, as he struggles to deal with a series of unfortunate events during one month of his life. The story begins when his neighbor, a mysterious and beautiful woman, angrily confronts him about a blog post she claims ridicules her. This confrontation sets in motion a series of events that make Claymore mad with anxiety. As the pages turn, you'll meet his strange and mystical neighbors and friends. This book will take you into the world of a normal man who is forced to deal with paranormal phenomena, treacherous former colleagues, secrets, twisted sex, violence, and love. You'll wonder what's happening in your own neighborhood without your awareness.
