The Perfect Author Shay Villere

There came a time after I had penned about six or seven books when I realized that my books were not special because of the content or the topic or name your reason.....it was because of the way I wrote them. My sentences and ideas and presentation were unique. So I decided to make a quick little booklet outlining how to write so your audience wants to read more and more of your material. There were already many authors in the world who have that skill, but my method is easy to master and fun to work with. Here is the booklet that can get you there, and get you there fast!
