The Seventh Seal Frank Heiberger

An unlikely trio must come together in an attempt to stave off Armageddon itself in Frank Heiberger's riveting new thriller, The Seventh Seal.

Yellowstone erupts, taking out northwest Wyoming. The New Madrid and San Andreas faults shift, turning safe zones into death traps.

By midnight, half of the country is lost to chaos.

What many see as a horrific series of natural disasters, however, professor Jan Kessler views as a dreaded sign of things to come.

According to her former colleague and lover, Richard Pullman, the Book of Revelation was God's original teachings—while the Book of Genesis was simply an allegory.

In fact, the tribes of Israel, in their belief that they were God's chosen ones, began altering God's book with their own histories. Furious, God hid his original teachings until humanity could regain its humility.

But now it appears that the book has been found...and that the worldwide earthquakes are due to the opening of the sixth seal.

With only one more seal preventing the apocalypse, Kessler, along with Pullman and his new lover, must find the holy book and put a stop to the end of the world. But are they already too late?
