Circle of Deception 2 M. Skye

Dealing with the loss of their Maria, Meg and Alex are pushing forward with their two children, Allison and their two-month old son, Jordan. Even with all the drama surrounding their family, Meg and Alex find themselves adjusting to their new marriage and becoming an instant family with only a few glitches. Meg is afraid to be too far away from their children and is obsessed with always being with them.

While Alex and Meg try to focus on their family, they find themselves sucked into the turmoil surrounding their siblings. When the accusations begin to fly, the entire group of friends find themselves split into sides. With everything going on, Alex and Meg are poised to remain neutral until they notice Allison pulling away from Meg.

While Meg is finding it harder and harder to put on a good face while her daughter treats her like an outsider, Alex is livid with the disrespect. In the midst of all of Allison's behavior problems, Alex and Meg are also dealing with Melia's rage and Gio's secrecy. With everything flaring out of control, the couple soon realizes the danger is just beginning, and the secrets far from buried
