In this trio of short stories, three classic fairy tales are brought back to life and retold with new depth and enjoyment. Witness the wicked stepmother's descent into madness in the retelling of Snow White, see what happens to the Sleeping Beauty after she's awoken from her enchanted slumber, and follow the gallant soldier's rise and fall from fame and fortune in the Tinderbox. With these retellings, the stories that most people know simply as children's literature are transformed into delightful tales for readers of all ages.
