Have you ever asked yourself "why me?" If so, this book can help you. The author has a progressive degenerative disease, and leans on God to persevere through the challenges of life. She has learned how to let God's silent voice guide her in tough times, and now wants to share her experiences with you. This book is great to read for your own devotionals, or in a small group Bible study; be challenged personally or within a group to conquer life God's way. Sometimes the hard days are the best days because it's in time of difficulty that God can be seen and felt.
