With his world in shards around him, Kitah was certain life as he knew it was over; little did he know, however, that his destiny had already begun to twist in an extraordinary way. Fearing for green eyed Kitah's life, the last of the Seacowan elves, Kurra and Ilee furtively swept him up among the chaos and fled to a safe, new Currokii land. As Kitah grows, the elves guide and help him discover his true magical abilities, all in preparation for him to one day face the master mind behind the decimation of Seacowa, one who was driven by a fierce personal hate of Kitah and his kind, the wicked queen of Penterah, Damyis.
