WARNING, this book contains ADULT CONTENT and LANGUAGE and is recommend for readers 18 and older.**

Emily grew up in small town in Wisconsin as the daughter of the local pastor. When her job was over as an teacher's assistant she sets out to leave her town and her family. She wants to find herself and break away from the cookie cutter mold of the town. So she did what she thought was right...She moves twenty-five hundred miles away to Arizona.

Xander is the single father to a 5 year old little girl. After her mother left, Xander swears off any kind of a relationship. Xander only has four cares: his daughter, his family, his friends and his motorcycle. He refuses to let anyone get near him or his daughter ever again.

When Emily and Xander meet it's something that neither one were expecting. The attraction is undeniable, but with Xander refusing to let anyone close, Emily decides to offer him a deal he'd be crazy to refuse.

Sometimes those that don't make sense, actually make perfect sense.
