Everyone has so much going on in their lives--work, school, sports, church--that making family time can sometimes seem difficult. But making that time is so important, and actually relaxes and enriches all involved. Not one of us years from now will ever say “Gee, I really regret that extra time I spent laughing and playing with my child when I could have been doing some laundry”. This book puts together one activity to do each week for a full year for your family.

There are so many ideas you can use for your own family fun night other than the ones listed, depending on your child’s age. Which one you choose depends on your child and your interests. Some of them are short and simple; some of them take more time. Some are indoor, some outdoor. The most important thing is that quality time with your child. It doesn’t matter what order they are done in. Start with the ones you like best, alter any to fit your tastes or your child’s age, and most of all, have fun!
