The Man Who Freed the Slaves: Story of William Wilberforce (Faith & Fame) Elsie May Johnson
William Wilberforce came from a wealthy family and his ambition was to become a member of parliament. He quickly succeeded and became famous, but fame was not enough. He went to the well-known preacher, the Rev. John Newton, author of the hymn Amazing Grace. "What shall I do with my life?" he asked. He knew he had to follow Jesus, but where? The answer he received was to stay in the HOuse of Commons and fight against the many evils of his day. Soon he took up the battle to stop slavery throughout the British colonies. He found many powerful people fighting against him. This exciting book shows how God help William Wilberforce to become the MAN WHO FREED the SLAVES.
