A Piper's Song C. K. Johnson

When you control music, every note is a weapon. Most girls don't think twice about singing along with their favorite song on the radio. Not me. I hum once and it zombies the hottest guy in school. The Pied Piper was real and I am his descendant. Music is my curse. If I don't master the song inside myself, it will overpower me, and if that happens... Let's put it this way: the last piper to lose control led a town-full of children to a river and started the plague. Welcome to my life.
