I Died, But I Got Better: My Journey To Becoming The Jaded Old Geezer Lance Von Prum

An interesting life to say the least, and in addition to having nearly been killed a dozen times or so, he is a professional watercolorist, published author of a dozen eBooks and had an "interesting" tour of duty while serving in the Army in Iran, Thailand and elsewhere during the Vietnamese War. Lance will have you chuckling from page one as his addictive humor becomes apparent. His uniquely honest writing style makes you feel at home as his detailed descriptions create vivid mental images that kept reader engaged.

Von Prum's multiple encounters with the Grim Reaper is the theme of the book and his hilarious description of each near death experience seems "over the top," except there are over thirty photos that support his outrageous claims. From a camel train in the middle of the Iranian desert to the author skydiving, his photos add another dimension to his story and as it unfolds, the experience and wisdom gained with each episode will keep the reader on the edge of his or her seat. A very entertaining read.
