The Princess Twins and the Tea Party (I Can Read! / Princess Twins Series) Mona Hodgson

A lesson in humility. In this Level-One I Can Read, Princess Emma runs around the castle making sure everything is perfect for the Spring Tea. She tries to tell the baker how to make the cake. She refolds the napkins. And she shoos Puppy out of the way. When her friends arrive, she learns that only God is perfect, and the real point of the day is to enjoy her friends.

This age and reading level appropriate story teaches girls what it means to be a princess for the true King.
