Complex Litigation: Cases and Materials on Advanced Civil Procedure (American Casebook Series)

Richard Marcus, Edward Sherman, Howard Erichson

For 30 years, this casebook has been the staple of Complex Litigation courses. It covers a wide variety of cases – civil rights, mass torts, securities, consumer rights – and provides a strong foundation for classroom coverage regarding any type of complex litigation. The current edition retains the book's familiar broad coverage while adding coverage of important recent developments. The class action chapter includes the recent Supreme Court class-action decisions. The first chapter has been revised to provide more consideration of the role of complex litigation in private enforcement of public norms. The book's treatment of multidistrict litigation has grown substantially in recognition of its increasing prominence, including a new section on the BP Oil Spill litigation. The treatment of electronic discovery takes account of ongoing changes in practice and further revisions expected in the Federal Rules. As in the past, teachers will be able to address a variety of contemporary issues using this book. And as in the past, teachers will receive further support in preparing to address these changing subjects. A comprehensive Teachers' Manual and annual Teachers' Updates are expected.
