Love Is Hannah Walton

John 13:35 tells us that the world should be able to recognize those who follow Jesus according to their love. However, many people today see Christians as judgmental or even hateful. Surely, this isn't how we were intended to display the heart of God. It was this realization among others that stirred me to want to make a change. It seems like we've settled for counterfeits and let the world's interpretation of love steal away our attention. As you go through the pages of this book, you will learn to apply the Word of God in daily situations and be challenged to reevaluate your own perception of love. My desire is that you will first and foremost fall more deeply in love with your Creator. I also pray that you will grow and begin to see people the way God sees them. Going through this process has changed me, and I know the same will happen for you.
