We are hardwired for success and we need not settle for anything less! However, success is a relative concept. It means whatever you want it to mean. Success is meaning. The choices we have are: Is success about acquiring physical possessions and positions or - is success about the quality of person we are becoming in the process?

Current research has revealed the existence of a new, emerging, human DNA. What were once perceived as junk genes, are now turning out to be biological material with inherent higher potential for us all. This potential - lying dormant within - is just waiting for us to wake up, take control, and to access this magnificent gift and universal power. We have the responsibility to use this personal potential to create success and miraculous living that will benefit all.

Dr Brenda Hattingh is an international inspirational and motivational speaker and was born in South Africa. As a professional executive leadership coach and mentor and a registered psychologist, she facilitates change and transformation in individuals, businesses, companies and organisations.
